At BoomEssays.com, you can already see few reviews. Will that stop me from checking out the service and writing my own review? Of course not! My experience tells me that these “testimonials” at websites are often fake. That doesn’t have to be the case this time, but I’ll check anyway and write my Boom Essays review.

At first sight, BoomEssays seems like an okay service. The prices are affordable; that’s for sure. However, the website is a bit more complicated than I’m used to. There’s too much text all over the place, so it was hard for me to find the information I actually needed.

Services Review

The list of services is available as a dropdown menu in the price calculator. When I check it out, I saw the first sign of a problem. Allow me to expand on that. There are few types of services that BoomEssays offers: academic paper writing, proofreading, editing, copywriting, math/physics/economic/statistics problems, multiple choice questions, resume/CV services, dissertation services, admission services, and... wait for it... rewriting!

My assumption is that this service wants to offer everything, so it will attract all kinds of orders. Given the fact that there were only 70 writers available at the moment when I was checking out the service, I don't know how it's possible for Boom Essays to cover all areas of study and all types of orders. I'll tell you how that's possible: these are freelance writers that don't write unique content. They rewrite. They take online sources and paraphrase them. Even when you order writing from scratch, you can never be sure that that's what you're getting. In my case, I didn't get a completely unique paper.

Prices Review

Now I get the lower price. Since you're practically paying for paraphrasing, it's easy for the service to drop the prices down.

There's a wide choice of deadlines, ranging from 14 days to 6 hours. The prices start from $12.99 per page and go up to $35.99 per page for High School level. There are 6 other quality levels, ranging from Freshman to Doctoral. Doctoral, as the highest quality level, is available with prices from $21.99 to $47.99 per page. As it turns out, the service is not even that affordable for the higher levels of quality.

Boom Essays does provide discounts for its customers. As a first-time user, you get a coupon for 15% off. Loyal users (I don't know who can be loyal to this service!) get 5%, 10%, or 15% off.

Content Quality

To write this Boom Essays review, I ordered a paper from this service. My intuition went active as soon as I saw that rewriting red signal. I expected something to go wrong, and I wasn't wrong. First of all, let me tell you that the service delivered the essay on time, so I'll give it some bonus points for that.

At first sight, the paper didn't seem too bad. However, it was too simple. I know that readability is important in academic writing, but these were sentences that an elementary student would write. Nevertheless, the content was on topic. Then I checked it through Copyscape, and it identified 13% plagiarism. I checked the two sources that Copyscape identified, and the content was paraphrased. I ordered academic paper writing, and I got rewriting. That's a huge problem.

Customer Support Agents

Throughout the ordering process, the customer support agents were available via live chat. Keep in mind that you have to fill in a form with your name and email before you can access the live chat, so there's some waiting involved.

The support system stops being effective when you ask for a refund. They will try to convince you that the paper is just fine and it will be great with some minor revisions.

Final Thoughts

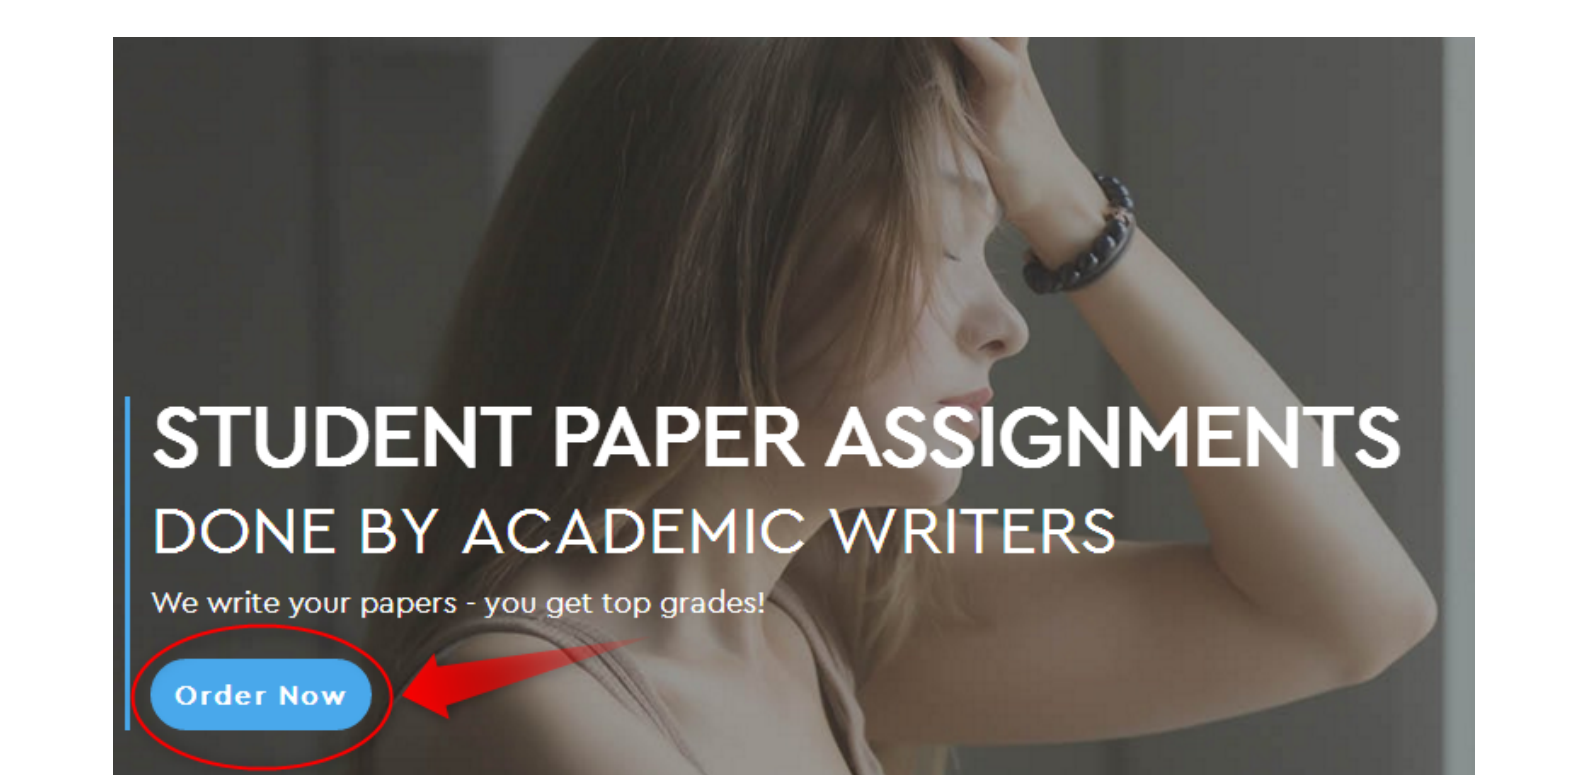

I don't recommend BoomEssays.com. It was a bad overall experience for me. Although the prices were relatively affordable, I practically wasted my money on a useless paper to write the Boom Essays review. When you think about it, this service is not affordable. It's more expensive than we assume.

Because of this, I'd recommend you to stay away from Boom Essays as the quality of their writing services is not worth what they charge.
